

Thameslink online refund ticket form

If you already have your tickets but change your plans for any reason, you can apply for a refund: you may have to pay a £10 admin fee.

If you bought your ticket from one of our ticket offices, simply return it to the ticket office to apply for a refund.

The Key Smartcard

If you purchased your ticket online you can log in to your online account and follow the prompts under the 'Manage my tickets/Refunds' section.

If you can't access your online account, purchased your ticket from a ticket machine or have any circumstances we may need to consider please apply via our smartcard refund form.

Uncollected tickets

If you bought your tickets online and haven't collected them you may be eligible for a full refund under our Money Back Guarantee scheme – to apply simply login to your online account: thameslinkrailway.com/myaccount

Collected tickets

If you've collected your tickets and can't get to one of our ticket offices, or you purchased your tickets using PayPal, please complete this refund form. Post this to the Freepost address below and attach your original tickets – please be aware that this may take longer to process than if you visited a ticket office.

First Class Declassification

It is quicker and easier to submit a claim online – please visit:

thameslinkrailway.com/firstclassclaimform

Make sure you apply for any refunds within 28 days of the date on your ticket. Advance Purchase tickets are non-refundable unless you've been unable to travel due to service disruption.

Please return your completed form and enclose your tickets and send them to:

Freepost RTGL-ELXC-HAUU, Govia
Thameslink Railway, Ashby De La Zouch,
LE65 1JT
