Introduction

GTR runs:

- Southern Railway
- Gatwick Express
- Thameslink
- Great Northern Railway

We want to make sure everyone can use our trains and stations.

This leaflet will tell you:

- How we help older and disabled people to use our railways.

- How to get help to use our railways, if you need it.

Before you travel

Booking assisted travel

Assisted travel is where our staff help you to get on and off the train and to get around the stations.

You can book your assisted travel beforehand.

We will help you to travel from any of our stations when trains are running.

We are part of a national system called 'Passenger Assist'.

Passenger Assist sends information to all the stations you are going to, so the staff are ready to help you.

Our staff can:

- Book assisted travel for you for your whole journey.

- Tell you about the stations you are going to and help to make any arrangements.

If you contact our Assisted Travel Team by phone, most calls are answered within 2 minutes.

If you book assisted travel online, we aim to deal with it within 2 hours.

When you have booked assisted travel, we will send you an email, or a letter if you have asked for one, to confirm the details.

2 hours

You can now book assisted travel up to 2 hours before your journey.

You can contact our Assisted Travel Team 24 hours a day, every day except Christmas Day.

If you have not booked beforehand

Most of our disabled customers are happy to travel without booking beforehand.

If the station has staff, they will help you.

If the station has no staff, you can speak to someone by using the Help Point emergency button.

They will help you to travel to where you want to go.

If a station is not accessible

If the station you want to travel from is not accessible to you, we will provide some other transport at no extra cost.

Accessible is when a place is easy to get into or around, or when something is easy to use.

Rail replacement buses

A rail replacement bus is a bus that we may use if the train is not able to run.

Many rail replacement buses are not able to take mobility scooters.

We may be able to keep your scooter at the station for you to pick up later.

Each stage of your journey

We understand that you need good and easy information when you plan your journey.

Our Assisted Travel Team can give you:

- Advice about how you can get support during your journey.

- Information about:

- Making sure you get a seat.

- Travelling with a baby.

- A card that explains what support you need.

Our Assisted Travel Team can also give you:

- Information about a guide to help you communicate.

- Support that is right for you.

- Information about what is available at each station.

- Advice about booking seats with other train companies.

Our Assisted Travel Team can also give you advice if you use a wheelchair or a mobility scooter.

Our Assisted Travel Team can also tell you:

- What is available on the trains.

- If there are staff at each station.

- The times of trains.

- How to buy tickets.

Our Assisted Travel Team can also tell you:

- How to get support and information while you are on your journey.

- How to make a complaint.

Websites

There is information about how accessible stations are on these websites:

- National Rail Enquiries:
www.nationalrail.co.uk

- Southern:
www.southernrailway.com//stations

There is also information about how accessible stations are on these websites:

- Thameslink:
www.thameslinkrailway.com/stations

- Great Northern:
www.greatnorthernrail.com/stations

- Gatwick Express:
www.gatwickexpress.com/stations

At the station

We have 236 stations, but your train may also stop at a station run by a different company.

We work with the other companies so that you get all the help you need.

At larger stations

At larger stations, there are information points with a counter that is accessible to everyone.

There are leaflets and information screens that are accessible to everyone.

At stations with staff

There is a meeting point where you can meet the staff who are going to help you.

The Assisted Travel Team will tell you where the meeting point is.

If you have not booked assisted travel, ask any member of staff to help you.

Get there early

You should try to get to the station 20 minutes before the train leaves.

This gives us enough time to arrange for someone to help you get off at the other end.

Help getting on and off the train

When our staff help you to get on the train, they will contact the station where you are getting off to tell them what help you need.

It might take us up to 5 minutes to help you off the train.

Station staff

Our station staff will be able to help you with:

- Tickets.

- Getting on and off the train.

- Getting around the station.

- Luggage.

- Finding your next train, bus or taxi.

At stations with no staff

You can get help by:

- Speaking to our staff at the Help Point.
- Phoning or texting a freephone number, which will be on a poster.

You should try to get to the station 20 minutes before the train leaves and contact our staff at the Help Point.

This gives us time to arrange some help.

We will make sure you get to where you want to go.

Many of our trains have a member of staff on board who can help people get on and off.

Many trains have ramps on board.

Mobile Support Team

Some of our stations do not have any staff.

But we want to try to make sure there is still someone available to help you.

At these stations, if you contact us 20 minutes before you need to leave, we will send someone to help you get on the train.

Usually, this will mean a member of staff travelling from another station to meet you.

You can contact the mobile support team:

- At the Help Point.

- By phone for free: 0808 168 1238
- By text: 07970 511 077

51

Our Mobile Support Team is close by. They will come and help you.

Our mobile support service is available at 51 stations.

You can find out more about this at the following websites:

- Southern:
www.southernrailway.com/mobileassistanceteam

- Thameslink:
www.thameslinkrailway.com/mobileassistanceteam

- Great Northern:
www.greatnorthernrail.com/mobileassistanceteam

Stations that are not accessible

Some stations are not accessible.
They might have:

- No way of getting to the platforms other than by steps.

- A lift that is broken.

In this case, we will pay for a taxi to take you to the next accessible station.

You can find out if a station is accessible or not on our websites or on the National Rail website:

[www.nationalrail.co.uk/
stations_destinations](http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/stations_destinations)

Tickets

You can buy tickets:

- Online.

- At ticket offices.

- From ticket machines.

- From the staff on trains.

If you cannot buy your ticket before you travel, you can buy it from the staff on the train or when you get to the end of your journey.

Money off

There is money off the price of a ticket for disabled people.

Discounts are available for blind and visually impaired customers who travel with a companion.

Our ticket office staff can help you with buying this discounted ticket.

Disabled Persons Railcard

If you get a Disabled Persons Railcard you will get a third off the price of your ticket and the ticket of the person who is travelling with you.

You can get more information about this railcard by:

- Website: www.disabledpersons-railcard.co.uk

- Email: railcardhelp@nationalrail.co.uk

- Telephone: 0345 605 0525

- Textphone: 0345 601 0132

If you stay in your wheelchair the whole journey

You can get money off the price of your ticket if you stay in your wheelchair for the whole journey.

Senior Railcard

If you are over 60, you can buy a Senior Railcard.

This gives you a third off the price of most tickets.

Ticket machines

There are ticket machines at all our stations.

You can get money off tickets with your Disabled Persons Railcard from these ticket machines.

Ticket gates

There are ticket gates at many stations.

There is always a wide ticket gate which is more accessible.

Usually, there will be a member of staff at the wide ticket gate to help you.

If there is no member of staff, the wide ticket gate will be left open.

When you buy your ticket beforehand

We will tell you about anything that is not accessible when you buy your ticket.

We will not sell you a ticket that you cannot use.

If your journey takes you onto a train run by a different company, we will check that it is accessible.

Wheelchairs, power chairs and mobility scooters

All our trains and boarding ramps are able to take wheelchairs, powerchairs and scooters.

Your chair or scooter should be no bigger than 700mm wide and 1200mm long.

It should be no heavier than 300kg when you are on it.

Scooters must be able to turn around in 1500mm.

Tell the person you buy the ticket from that you have a wheelchair or scooter.

They will check if this is okay with any other railway companies that you plan to use for your journey.

Help with luggage

We will help disabled and older people with their luggage where we can. This will be free.

You may take 2 items of luggage and 1 piece of hand luggage.

Each bag must not weigh more than 23kg.

On our trains

On our trains, we provide:

- Priority Seating.

Priority Seating is where other people should let a disabled, pregnant or older person have the seat.

- Accessible spaces for your wheelchair with a button that you can use to call for help.

- Information which you can either see or hear.

- Ramps.

- Accessible toilets.

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs are welcome on our trains free of charge.

We also provide water for assistance dogs at stations that have staff.

We support the National Rail 'Assistance dog under a seat' card, which you can get for free from: www.nationalrail.co.uk/

If things do not go as planned

Things do not always go as planned.

If something happens, we will tell you by:

- Announcements at stations and on our trains.

CANCELLED DELAYED

- Information on screens at stations and on our trains.

Our staff will also tell you the latest information.

We will put information on our website and our app.

An app is a computer programme that you can download onto your phone, tablet or computer.

You can check if things like lifts are working on our websites:

- Southern:
[www.southernrailway.com/
service-updates](http://www.southernrailway.com/service-updates)

- Thameslink:

service-updates](http://www.greatnorthernrail.com/service-updates)

- Gatwick Express:
[www.gatwickexpress.com/
service-updates](http://www.gatwickexpress.com/service-updates)

If you have booked Passenger Assist, we will try to contact you to help you get to where you are going.

Replacement buses

If things do not go as planned, we will often provide rail replacement buses.

These buses will usually be accessible.

If you cannot use the bus, our staff will help to find another way to get you to where you need to go.

Contact us

Please contact us if you:

- Need more information.

- Want to tell us something about our service.

- Are unhappy with anything.

Our telephone lines will be answered 24 hours a day, every day, except Christmas Day.
